

Overview

Petoskey, Michigan the county seat for Emmet County draws vacationers from a broad region of the Midwest to its seasonal residences, ski resorts, golf courses, campgrounds, casinos and other numerous attractions. These diverse recreational opportunities have made Petoskey a true year-round resort community. Remarkable statistics suggest that the annual influx of tourists replicates the effects of having almost 60% more permanent residents in the region. Petoskey was ranked #2 in the list of the 100 Best Small Town Getaways published in the June, 2007 edition of Midwest Living Magazine.

Bear Creek Plaza offers a strong mix of retail and entertainment uses including an 8-screen theatre, several restaurants and the strongest national and regional retailers including Wal-Mart Super Center, Home Depot, Office Max, MC Sporting Goods and JoAnn Fabrics. Odawa Casino Resort is located adjacent to the Center with its large gaming area and adjacent entertainment complex. Meijer opened in the Spring of 2010 on the nearby corner of US 131 and Lears Road.
